Contests for Students

Contests and activities which are sponsored by outside agencies and which involve participation by students or granting of awards and prizes to students shall not be announced or permitted in the schools unless approved by the administration. Such activities must be judged to have educational value for the participants before permission may be granted.

Contests listed in the List of Approved Contests, Programs, and Activities for Students of the National Association of Secondary School Principals are generally approved for local use depending upon the judgement of the building principal.
