Administration Goals

The purpose of administration is to help create and foster an environment in which students can learn most effectively. All administrative duties and functions will be appraised in terms of the contributions they make to better instruction, to increase student motivation and achievement and ensure safe, predictable learning environments.

Primary district administration functions will be to:

1. Implement the district's goals so as to ensure the best and most effective learning programs;
2. Effectively manage the district's various facilities, funds and programs;
3. Provide professional advice and counsel to the Board and to any committees established by Board action.
