Transporting Students to Other Locations

All elementary (K-5) students requesting permission to ride school buses to places other than home-to-school must have a signed note from the parent or guardian indicating the date, place, and parental responsibility for the request. The principal or designee, will confirm available space for any long-term adjustments.

Buses will conform to existing routes and stops and any student transfer from one bus to another will be the responsibility of the parents and student.
