

Compulsory Attendance

Except when exempt by Oregon law, all students between ages 6 and 18 who have not completed the 12th grade are required to regularly attend a public full-time school during the entire school term.

All students five years of age who have been enrolled in a public school are required to attend regularly while enrolled in the public school.

Persons having legal control of a student between ages 6 and 18 who has not completed the 12th grade are required to have the student attend and maintain the child in regular attendance during the school term.

Persons having legal control of a student who is five years of age and has enrolled the child in a public school, are required to have the student attend and maintain the child in regular attendance during the school term.

Under the executive director's direction and supervision, attendance supervisors shall monitor and report any violation of the compulsory attendance law to the executive director or designee. Failure to send a student and to maintain a student in regular attendance is a Class C violation.

The public charter school will develop procedures for issuing a citation.

A parent who is not supervising his/her student by requiring school attendance may also be in violation of Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 163.577 (1)(c). Failing to supervise a child is a Class A violation.

Exemptions from Compulsory School Attendance

In the following cases, students shall not be required to attend public schools full-time:

1. Students being taught in a private or parochial school in courses of study usually taught in kindergarten through grade 12 in the public schools, and in attendance for a period equivalent to that required of students attending public schools.
2. Students proving to the Board's satisfaction that they have acquired equivalent knowledge to that acquired in the courses of study taught in kindergarten through grade 12 in the public schools.
3. Students being taught by a private teacher the courses of study usually taught in kindergarten through grade 12 in the public school for a period equivalent to that required of students attending public schools.
4. Students being educated in the home by a parent.
5. Students excluded from attendance as provided by law.

6. An exemption may be granted to the parent of any student 16 or 17 years of age who is lawfully employed full-time, or who is lawfully employed part-time and enrolled in school, a community college or an alternative education program as defined in ORS 336.615.
