Orig. Code(s): 5200-5202

Student Rights and Responsibilities

Students, just as any other citizens, have rights guaranteed to them by the federal and state constitutions and by the laws of our society. The district shall strive at all times to preserve and protect the rights of students, as defined by state and federal statutes.

District secondary schools shall provide student handbooks which include a specification of student rights and responsibilities in conformance with state standards.

All discipline decisions affecting students shall be based on careful and reasoned investigation of all facts and information and the consistent application of rules and regulations, before disciplinary action is taken.
