School Bus Driver Examination and Training

The district or transportation provider shall verify that a school bus drivers' physical examinations were certified by a medical examiner. This medical examiner's certificate must have been listed in the Federal Motor Carrier Safety Administration's National Registry of Certified Medical Examiners as of the date of the issuance for the school bus driver's examination certificate. Bus drivers shall also meet other criteria as established by state and federal law and by the Oregon Department of Education, including the requirements for a commercial driver's license (CDL).

A school bus manufacturer, school bus dealer or school bus mechanic is not required to have a school bus endorsement while operating a school bus that is not transporting students.
