Name, Mascot and Color Selection for New School or Facility

The Board desires to open the process to suggestions by students, staff and community members who will first be associated with the new building for determining names, mascot and colors for a new school or facility.

Naming Process for a New Building or Facility

The superintendent will form a committee of volunteers to include representation from the Board, the new building staff, students and community members. The naming committee will seek input by means of a community forum, contest or survey. The committee will consider proposed names and select up to three names for consideration and recommend the name(s) to the Board for a final decision.

Selection of School Mascot and School Colors

A new school building may form a mascot and color selection committee led by the new principal. The principal will create a committee to solicit mascots and colors from the staff, students, parents and community members being served by the school. The committee and principal will recommend up to three suggestions for the school mascot and colors to the superintendent for review. The final recommendations will be presented to the Board for final selection.
