Salary Placement - Out-of-District Experience

Experienced teachers entering service in the Klamath County School District may be credited with 12 years of successful teaching experience. One year's experience shall be defined as 8 or more consecutive teaching months as a state licensed teacher holding a valid teacher's contract. Teachers presently not under contract with the district are considered to be entering service.

Prior experience in private or parochial schools, colleges or universities, nursery schools or other situations will be evaluated by the administration on its own merit and credit granted on the salary schedule accordingly.
