Program and Curriculum Exemptions

The Board may excuse students from a state-required program or learning activity for reasons of religion, disability or other reasons deemed appropriate by the district.

An alternative program for credit may be provided.

The district recognizes the right of parents to excuse their children from any curriculum they find to be objectionable for religious or moral reasons. Students may also be excused because of handicapping conditions.

The principal will authorize this exclusion upon written request of the parents.

Students will not be responsible for any of the material taught during their absence. The teacher may choose to assign the student work on a different topic in lieu of the one being taught in class. Such an alternative assignment shall not exceed the regular class work in difficulty or time required to complete it.
