Student Activities - District Sponsored/Community Financed

The district will, at the discretion of the Board, enter into agreement with community organizations and groups or individuals to be the sponsor of an activity with the community unit financing all or part of the costs of the activity.

The district will be in complete control of the management, operation, supervision and jurisdiction of the activity.

The community unit will give notice of intent to finance the activity one year in advance and/or at such time that the Oregon School Activities Association's requirement can be accommodated if this is a factor.
