Video Cameras on Transportation Vehicles

The Board authorizes the use of video cameras as part of its program of improving bus safety through better student supervision. Parents and students shall be notified that the video cameras are in use on the buses. The district shall maintain the videos with the requirements of confidentiality and in accordance with state and federal regulations. Parents will have the right to view the video tapes, subject to education records policies and procedures conforming to existing laws.

The superintendent shall develop and monitor procedures for implementing this policy.
