Workers' Compensation Insurance

All employees are covered by the district workers' compensation insurance. Any injury or occupational illness to an employee while on duty must be reported at once to the immediate supervisor and to the business manager or plant operations director and complete a Workers' Report of Occupational Injury or Disease/Illness claim. The employee will be advised to notify the medical service provider that the injury or illness is covered by workers' compensation laws. The accident or illness must qualify as an industrial accident or illness under state law and district regulations.

Any employee who is injured while on duty or becomes ill as a result of performing his/her responsibilities may receive compensation and expenses as prescribed by state law and regulations.
