

Sexual Harassment Complaint Procedure

Principals, supervisors and the superintendent have responsibility for investigations concerning sexual harassment. The superintendent or designee shall appoint the investigator(s) who shall be a neutral party having had no involvement in the complaint presented.

Step 1

Any sexual harassment information (complaints, rumors, etc.) shall be presented to the principal, supervisors or superintendent within a reasonable amount of time. All such information shall be reduced to writing and will include the specific nature of the sexual harassment and corresponding dates.

Step 2

The district official receiving the information or complaint shall promptly initiate an investigation. He/She will arrange such meetings as may be necessary to discuss the issue with all concerned parties within 10 working days after receipt of the information or complaint. All findings of the investigation, including the response of the alleged harasser, shall be reduced to writing. The district official(s) conducting the investigation shall notify the complainant in writing when the investigation is concluded. The parties will have an opportunity to submit evidence and a list of witnesses.

A copy of the notification letter, together with any other documentation related to the sexual harassment incident, including disciplinary action taken or recommended, shall be forwarded to the superintendent.

Step 3

If a complainant is not satisfied with the decision at Step 2, he/she may submit a written appeal to the superintendent or designee. Such appeal must be filed within 10 working days after receipt of the Step 2 decision. The superintendent or designee will arrange such meetings with the complainant and other affected parties as deemed necessary to discuss the appeal. The superintendent or designee shall provide a written decision to the complainant within 10 working days.

Step 4

If a complainant is not satisfied with the decision at Step 3, he/she may submit a written appeal to the Board. Such appeal must be filed within 10 working days after receipt of the Step 3 decision. The Board shall, within 20 working days, conduct a hearing at which time the complainant shall be given an opportunity to present the appeal. The Board shall provide a written decision to the complainant within 30 working days following completion of the hearing.

Step 5

If the complaint is not satisfactorily settled at the Board level, the employee may appeal to the U.S. Department of Labor, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission or Oregon Bureau of Labor and Industries; the student may appeal to the Regional Civil Rights Director, U.S. Department of Education, Office for Civil Rights, Region X, 915 2nd Ave., Room 3310, Seattle, WA 98174-1099. Additional information regarding filing of a complaint may be obtained through the building principal, compliance officer or superintendent.

All documentation related to sexual harassment complaints may become part of the student's education record or employee's personnel file as appropriate. Additionally, a copy of all sexual harassment complaints and documentation will be maintained as a confidential file and stored in the district office.

The superintendent shall report the name of any person holding a teaching license, registered with the Teacher Standards and Practices Commission (TSPC) or participating in a practicum under OAR 584-015-0070 or 584-016-1075 when, after appropriate investigation, there is reasonable cause to believe the person may have committed an act of sexual harassment. Reports shall be made to TSPC within 30 days of such a finding. Reports of sexual contact with a student shall be given to law enforcement representatives or Services to Children and Families representatives as possible child abuse. In the event the superintendent is the subject of the investigation, reports, when required, shall be made by the Board chair.

Procedimiento de Quejas por Discriminación

Quejas de discriminación en cuanto a la interpretación o la aplicación del curso de acción del distrito escritas sobre la nodiscriminación, deben de presentarse según los siguientes procesos:

Proceso Informal

Cualquier persona que sienta que ha sido discriminada debe discutir el asunto con el principal del edificio. El principal, a su vez, investigará la queja y responderá al querellante en cinco días de trabajo desde que escuchó la queja. Si la respuesta del principal no es aceptable al querellante, él/ella puede iniciar un proceso formal.

Si el principal es el sujeto del querellante, el individuo puede proceder con su queja directamente al superintendente. Si el superintendente es el sujeto del querellante, el querellante puede proceder con su queja directamente con el presidente de la Junta escolar (school Board).

Proceso Formal

Paso 1

Una queja escrita puede ser entregada al principal del edificio en cinco días de trabajo desde que recibió respuesta sobre la queja informal. El principal del edificio debe seguir investigando, decidir los méritos de la queja, y determinar el proceso de acción que debe proceder, si alguno, y reponder en forma escrita al querellante en 10 días de trabajo.

Paso 2

Si el querellante desea apelar la decisión del principal, él/ella puede someter una petición al superintendente entre cinco días de trabajo desde que recibió la respuesta del principal sobre la queja. El superintendente se juntará con todas las personas involucradas, como sea necesario, y hará una decisión y responderá en una respuesta escrita al querellante entre 10 días de trabajo.

Paso 3

Si el querellante no está satisfecho (a) con la decisión del superintendente, puede someter una petición escrita a la Junta escolar (school Board) entre cinco días de trabajo desde que recibió la respuesta del superintendente al Paso II. En el esfuerzo de resolver la queja, la Junta escolar (school Board) tendrá una reunión con todas las personas relacionadas en la queja y sus representantes en la próxima sesión de la Junta escolar o en una sesión especial de la Junta escolar para este propósito. Una copia de la decisión de la Junta escolar se enviará al querellante entre 10 días trabajo desde que la Junta escolar tuvo esta sesión.

Si el querellante no está satisfecho después de haber exhausto el procedimiento local, o después de 90 días de trabajo, o cual ocurra primero, él/ella puede apelar en forma escrita al Superintendente de Instrucción Publica.

Quejas presentadas o que necesitan investigación durante los meses de verano mientras los principales u otros trabajadores (staff) no están trabajando será demorada hasta que todos las personas involucradas puedan regresar al trabajo el próximo año escolar.
