Research

Employees are encouraged to participate in research and experimentation in the development and improvement of education. If an employee plans to engage in a research project during the workday using Lane ESD resources or involving ESD students, approval must be secured from the superintendent in accordance with policy IFA. If the study results in material which would be useful to other employees, it shall be made available for distribution throughout the ESD.

Proposals for research studies from agencies or individuals outside the ESD or from staff members shall be submitted to the superintendent or his/her designee and evaluated in accordance with policy IFA.
