Consultants to the Board

The Board may engage persons in advisory capacity when specific services are required which are beyond the capabilities or responsibilities of regularly employed personnel.

Such consultants may include attorneys, auditors, architects, agents of record and others with technical skills or professional training.

The Board may appoint such consultants to serve for a specified period of time or may engage such consultants to perform specific tasks on a temporary basis. Except where the consultant serves under a written contract for a specified period of time, the Board has sole discretion for terminating such consulting services.

The Board may conduct periodic reviews of the services.

Prior to reappointment, the district may open proposals for service.
