Licensed Evaluation - Administrators

Evaluation of all administrative personnel shall be conducted annually for probationary staff and at least every other year for contract staff. Evaluations, using the Differentiated Program for Professional Growth Model, shall be based on the job description and any applicable standards of performance, as well as on progress toward goals for the year established by the administrator and/or his/her supervisor. At least every other year, by March 15, the Board will inform each contracted administrator whether their contract will be extended for another three years, for one year, or not extended.

All licensed administrators shall be evaluated according to the process outlined in ORS 342.850.
