Student Progress Reports to Parents

Regular reporting of student progress to parents is a part of the district's ongoing process of interpreting the educational program to the community. Evaluation techniques and progress rating standards shall be clearly communicated to students and parents. In an effort to promote effective communications with individuals with disabilities, the school will provide progress reports in an alternative format upon request and with appropriate advance notice.

Full consideration will be given to the requests of the person with a disability in the selection of appropriate auxiliary aids and services. Reporting to parents shall be carried out in conformance with regulations developed by the superintendent or designee.
