Public Solicitation in District Facilities

Individuals or groups shall not distribute nor display on school premises material which is of a commercial nature without the approval of the principal or designee.

Individuals or groups must obtain the written authorization of the principal or designee prior to selling materials or engaging in activities which solicit financial contributions from students or employees on school premises. If approved, such sales and solicitations shall not cause a substantial disruption or material interference with school activities, the educational process, or employees' work activities.
