Student Rights and Responsibilities

Among these student rights and responsibilities are the following:

1. Civil rights, including the rights to equal educational opportunity and freedom from discrimination; the responsibility not to discriminate against others;
2. The right to attend public schools; the responsibility to attend school regularly and to observe school rules essential for permitting self and others to learn at school;
3. The right to due process of law with respect to suspension, expulsion, and decisions which the student believes to interfere with his/her rights;
4. The right to free inquiry and expression; the responsibility to observe reasonable rules regarding these rights;
5. The right to privacy, which includes privacy with respect to the student's school records.

Students have the right to know the behavior standards expected of them as well as to know the consequences of misbehavior.

Student's rights and responsibilities, including standards of conduct, will be made available to students and their parents through information distributed annually in the Student Rights and Responsibilities Handbook.
