

Medford School District 549C

Code: ECA
Adopted: 4/05/88
Readopted: 12/05/06

Buildings and Grounds Security

The school district is committed to working with community agencies to reduce the opportunity for criminal/antisocial activities and provide a safe and secure environment for staff and students.

Security and Access

The Board seeks to provide an atmosphere of openness for the encouragement of community involvement in local schools. This must be balanced by restrictions on access which are designed to promote security in district facilities.

Reporting a Crime or Other Emergency

School personnel shall cooperate fully with local, state and federal law enforcement agencies as they seek to protect life and property, to prevent antisocial behavior and preserve a secure environment in district schools and facilities. It is the responsibility of students and staff to report all crimes, even those considered minor, to the city police and district administration. All suspicious activity and other emergencies should be reported to the building supervisor as promptly as possible.
