Code: IGBB
Adopted: 4/21/81
Readopted: 1/15/97

Services for Talented and Gifted Students

The Board of Education of School District 549C recognizes the need to establish an educational program designed to provide maximum educational opportunities for all students including nontypical populations. The Board recognizes that many children have talents and abilities which may need acceleration and/or enrichment opportunities beyond the regular curriculum. The district, while meeting the requirements of Oregon Statutes and Administrative Regulations pertaining to TAG, shall identify these students and provide the educational services to develop these innate talents and abilities.
