

Medford School District 549C

Code: JFCB
Adopted: 6/16/81
Readopted: 12/01/09

Care of District Property by Students

It is each student's responsibility to show respect for all district property. Any student who willfully damages or defaces district property shall be disciplined.

The Board declares its intent to hold students and their parents responsible for loss or damage of district property. Notice of the district's intent will be provided annually in student/parent handbooks or school newsletters as required by law. The district shall require the parent or student, depending on the age, to make restitution for the damages.
