

Medford School District 549C

Code: JFGA
Adopted: 8/18/81
Readopted: 11/16/99

Law Enforcement Interviews and Investigations

District staff members shall cooperate with law enforcement and juvenile authorities as they carry out their mandated responsibilities. More important, however, the district also has a responsibility to students and their parents to insure that the students' education is not interrupted and their rights are protected. Therefore, school district staff shall at all times oversee all interviews and investigations of students on school premises except in emergency situations and in child abuse investigations.
