

Medford School District 549C

Code: KH
Adopted: 4/07/92
Orig. Code(s): KH

Public Gifts to the Schools

The school district may accept gifts, which are appropriate to the educational program and meet the standards of selection established by the district. The superintendent is authorized to accept gifts in behalf of the Board of Education. In instances where the superintendent doubts the appropriateness of the gift, the gift may be declined or referred to the Board of Education.

In all cases, gifts given to the district shall become the property of the district and may not be accepted on any other basis.
