

Medford School District 549C

Code: KM
Adopted: 4/07/92
Orig. Code(s): KM

Relations with Community Organizations

The Board of Education recognizes that while the schools have the primary responsibility for the formal education of the children of the district, many community organizations enhance and contribute to the education of youngsters.

The superintendent and staff are encouraged to establish positive working relationships with public and private organizations which contribute to the educational process and the general welfare of students.
