Emergency Closures

MESD Offices

The superintendent shall determine when conditions warrant delayed opening, early closure or full-day closure of MESD offices.

MESD Sites Located in Component MESD Facilities

When component districts have delayed opening, early closure or full-day closure, MESD staff assigned to those sites¹ will be governed by such action regardless of the decision made concerning the MESD central office.

Compensation

Regular employees will be paid for the full day in the event of emergency action resulting in late opening, early closure or full-day closure.

Extended closures due to emergencies may result in a modification of the work calendar.
