Student Agreement for an Electronic Communications System Account

In accordance with MESD policy and Federal and State law, MESD's network is monitored and filtered to facilitate the system's use for the advancement and promotion of learning and teaching. Monitoring is intended to protect against unauthorized access, monitor the network use by minors, protect data and secure the network infrastructure. Internet filtering is used to deny access to inappropriate sites or sites potentially harmful to minors. Acceptance of monitoring and filtering is required for the use of the system.

This student agreement must be renewed each academic year.
