Superintendent's Contract

The superintendent, upon appointment by the Board, will receive a written contract which will state the terms of appointment, compensation, benefits and other conditions of appointment, and will include requirements for renewal or termination of the contract. Contracts shall not be issued for more than three years in duration. The contract shall automatically expire at the end of its term. The Board may elect to issue a subsequent contract at any time for an additional three years. The Board may not enter into an employment contract that contains provisions that expressly obligates the district to compensate the superintendent for work that is not performed.

The contract will meet any requirements of state law and will be mutually acceptable to the Board and superintendent.
