Code: EEADA
Adopted: 1978
Orig. Code: EEADA

Public Use of School Buses

School buses may be used by the public for emergencies such as natural disasters, fires, floods and in time of war.

The Chairman of the Board or superintendent of the school district may authorize such use providing:

1. A qualified bus driver is available.
2. The emergency is covered by the school liability bus insurance.
3. A negotiated fee, if any, is agreed upon in advance for the driver and bus.
4. Assumption of risk will remain with the agency requesting the use of the bus.
5. The individual requesting the use of the bus shall state in writing the purpose of its use and sign the paper.
