Code: JFD
Adopted: 10/87
Orig. Code: JFD

Students of Legal Age

Students who are 18 and are living at home are considered the responsibility of their parents and are, therefore, bound by the school's attendance procedures. Students who are 18 and who are not living with parents or guardians are considered legally emancipated from parental control. These students are able to write their own excuses and/or call the attendance officer. If an 18-year old student decided to remain in school, he/she must follow all of the other attendance procedures.
