Detention of Students

A student may be detained outside of school hours on one or more days if the student violates the student code of conduct or attendance policies. The detention shall not begin, however, until the student's parents have been notified of the reason for the detention and can make arrangements for the student's transportation on the day(s) of the detention.

Exceptions include detention after a certain class during the school day as a consequence for that day's actions such as during lunchtime or recess.
