Curriculum Supervision

It is the intent of the Board to provide for the ongoing supervision of curriculum. Accordingly, the superintendent shall ensure:

1. The district office contains a curriculum office with leadership being provided for curriculum change;
2. Special curriculum committees are established to carry out the various studies necessary to improve curriculum;
3. Workshops both for curriculum improvement and for teachers' improvement are available;
4. Direct supervisory help is provided to those individuals working on curriculum and to building principals and staffs from the district office.
