Orig. Code(s): 7153

Concurrent Enrollment

A district high school student may enroll in day classes at Blue Mountain Community College providing that:

1. He/She is enrolled in not less than four courses in the high school;
2. The course or courses taken at Blue Mountain Community College are not available in the high school;
3. He/She has written permission from the high school principal releasing him/her from attendance to take the class or the local district has a contract with the college.

High school students may take college courses for credit if they have met the conditions cited; however, the high school principal will determine whether or not the student may utilize credits earned at the college to complete requirements for the local high school diploma.
