7. “School software” is defined as any commercial or staff developed software acquired using public charter school resources.

¹As inappropriate matter is not defined in the CIPA or regulations, public charter schools should define the scope of what it will regard as inappropriate matter. The language provided in #5. is intended as a guide only.

General Public Charter School Responsibilities

The public charter school will:

1. Designate staff as necessary to ensure coordination and maintenance of the public charter school's electronic communications system which includes all public charter school computers, e-mail and Internet access;
2. Provide staff training in the appropriate use of the public charter school's system including copies of public charter school policy and administrative regulations. Staff will provide similar training to authorized system users;
3. Provide a system for authorizing staff use of personal electronic devices to download or access public charter school proprietary information, that insures the protections of said information and insures its removal from the device when its use is no longer authorized;
4. Provide a system for obtaining prior written agreement from staff for the recovery of public charter school proprietary information downloaded to staff personal electronic devices as necessary to accomplish public charter school purposes, obligations or duties, and when the use on the personal electronic device is no longer authorized, to insure verification that information downloaded has been properly removed from the personal electronic device;
5. Cooperate fully with local, state or federal officials in any investigation relating to misuse of the public charter school's system;
6. Use only properly licensed software, audio or video media purchased by the public charter school or approved for use by the public charter school. The public charter school will comply with the requirements of law regarding the use, reproduction and distribution of copyrighted works and with applicable provisions of use or license agreements;
7. Install and use desktop and/or server virus detection and removal software;
8. Provide technology protection measures that protect against Internet access by both adults and minors to visual depictions that are obscene, child pornography, or with respect to the use of computers by minors, harmful to minors. A supervisor or other individual authorized by the principal may disable the technology protection measures to enable access for bona fide research or other lawful purposes, as deemed appropriate;
9. Prohibit access by minors, as defined by CIPA and this regulation, to inappropriate matter on the Internet and World Wide Web;
10. Provide staff supervision to monitor the online activities of students to prevent unauthorized access, including "hacking" and other unlawful activities online, and ensure the safety and security of minors when authorized to use e-mail, social media, chat rooms and other forms of direct electronic communication;
11. Provide student education about appropriate online behavior, including cyberbullying awareness and response, and how to interact with other individuals on social networking and social media websites and in chat rooms;

12. Determine which users and sites accessible as part of the public charter school's system are most applicable to the curricular needs of the public charter school and may restrict user access, accordingly;
13. Determine which users will be provided access to the public charter school's e-mail system;
14. Notify appropriate system users that:
 - a. The public charter school retains ownership and control of its computers, hardware, software and data at all times. All communications and stored information transmitted, received or contained in the public charter school's information system are the public charter school's property and are to be used for authorized purposes only. Use of public charter school equipment or software for unauthorized purposes is strictly prohibited. To maintain system integrity, monitor network etiquette and ensure that those authorized to use the public charter school's system are in compliance with Board policy, administrative regulations and law, the school administrators may routinely review user files and communications;
 - b. Files and other information, including e-mail, sent or received, generated or stored on public charter school servers are not private and may be subject to monitoring. By using the public charter school's system, individuals consent to have that use monitored by authorized public charter school personnel. The public charter school reserves the right to access and disclose, as appropriate, all information and data contained on public charter school computers and public charter school-owned e-mail system;
 - c. E-mail sent or received by a Board member or employee in connection with the transaction of public business may be a public record and subject to state archivist rules for retention and destruction;
 - d. Information and data entered or stored on the public charter school's computers and e-mail system may become discoverable evidence if a public records request is made or a lawsuit is filed against the public charter school. "Deleted" or "purged" data from public charter school computers or e-mail system may be retrieved for later public records disclosure or disciplinary purposes, as deemed necessary by the public charter school;
 - e. Passwords used on the public charter school's system are the property of the public charter school and must be provided to their supervisor or designated public charter school personnel, as appropriate. Passwords that have not been provided to the public charter school are prohibited;
 - f. Transmission of any materials regarding political campaigns is prohibited.
15. Ensure all student, staff and nonschool system users complete and sign an agreement to abide by the public charter school's electronic communications policy and administrative regulations. All such agreements will be maintained on file in the school office;
16. Notify users of known copyright infringing activities and deny access to or remove the material.

System Access

1. Access to the public charter school's system is authorized to:

Board members, public charter school employees, students in grades K-8, with parent approval and when under the direct supervision of staff, and public charter school volunteers, public charter school contractors or other members of the public as authorized by the system coordinator or public charter school administrators consistent with the public charter school's policy governing use of public charter school equipment and materials.

2. Students, staff, Board members, volunteers, public charter school contractors and other members of the public may be permitted to use the public charter school's system for personal use, in addition to official public charter school business, consistent with Board policy, general use prohibitions/guidelines/etiquette and other applicable provisions of this administrative regulation. Personal use of public charter school-owned computers including Internet and e-mail access by employees is prohibited during the employee's work hours. Additionally, Board member and employee use of public charter school-owned computers may be permitted only when such use does not violate the provisions of ORS 244.040 and use is under the same terms and conditions that access is provided to the general public under the public charter school's policy governing use of public charter school equipment and materials.

General Use Prohibitions/Guidelines/Etiquette

Operation of the public charter school's system relies upon the proper conduct and appropriate use of system users. Students, staff and others granted system access are responsible for adhering to the following prohibitions and guidelines which require legal, ethical and efficient utilization of the public charter school's system.

1. Prohibitions

The following conduct is strictly prohibited:

- a. Attempts to use the public charter school's system for:
 - (1) Unauthorized solicitation of funds;
 - (2) Distribution of chain letters;
 - (3) Unauthorized sale or purchase of merchandise and services;
 - (4) Collection of signatures;
 - (5) Membership drives;
 - (6) Transmission of any materials regarding political campaigns.
- b. Attempts to upload, download, use, reproduce or distribute information, data, software, or file share music, videos or other materials on the public charter school's system in violation of copyright law or applicable provisions of use or license agreements;

 - (3) A product or service not permitted to minors by law;

- (4) Harassment, intimidation, menacing, threatening or constitutes insulting or fighting words, the very expression of which injures or harasses others;
 - (5) A likelihood that, either because of its content or the manner of distribution, it will cause a material or substantial disruption of the proper and orderly operation of the school or school activity;
 - (6) Defamatory, libelous, reckless or maliciously false, potentially giving rise to civil liability, constituting or promoting discrimination, a criminal offense or otherwise violates any law, rule, regulation, Board policy and/or administrative regulation.
- f. Attempts to gain unauthorized access to any service via the public charter school's system which has a cost involved or attempts to incur other types of costs without specific approval. The user accessing such services will be responsible for these costs;
 - g. Attempts to post or publish personal student contact information unless authorized by the system coordinator or teacher and consistent with applicable Board policy pertaining to student directory information and personally identifiable information. Personal contact information includes photograph, age, home, school, work or e-mail addresses or phone numbers or other unauthorized disclosure, use and dissemination of personal information regarding students;
 - h. Attempts to arrange student meetings with anyone on the public charter school's system, unless authorized by the system coordinator or teacher and with prior parent approval;
 - i. Attempts to use the public charter school's name in external communication forums such as chat rooms without prior public charter school authorization;
 - j. Attempts to use another individual's account name or password, failure to provide the public charter school with individual passwords or to access restricted information, resources or networks to which the user has not been given access.

2. Guidelines/Etiquette

System users will:

- a. Adhere to the same standards for communicating online that are expected in the classroom and consistent with Board policy and administrative regulations;
- b. Respect other people's time and cyberspace. Use real-time conference features such as talk/chat/Internet relay chat only as approved by the supervising teacher or system coordinator. Avoid downloading excessively large files. Remain on the system long enough to get needed information then exit the system. Act as though every byte sent costs somebody time and money, because it does;
- c. Take pride in communications. Check spelling and grammar;
- d. Respect the privacy of others. Do not read the mail or files of others without their permission;
- e. Cite all quotes, references and sources;
- f. Adhere to guidelines for managing and composing effective e-mail messages:
 - (1) One subject per message - avoid covering various issues in a single e-mail message;
 - (2) Use a descriptive heading;
 - (3) Be concise - keep message short and to the point;
 - (4) Write short sentences;
 - (5) Use bulleted lists to break up complicated text;
 - (6) Conclude message with actions required and target dates;
 - (7) Remove e-mail in accordance with established guidelines;

- (8) Remember, there is no expected right to privacy when using e-mail. Others may read or access mail;
 - (9) Always sign messages;
 - (10) Always acknowledge receipt of a document or file.
- g. Protect password confidentiality. Passwords are the property of the public charter school and are not to be shared with others. Using another user's account or password or allowing such access by another may be permitted with supervising teacher or system coordinator approval only. No system user may use a password on the public charter school's computers, e-mail system or Internet access which is unknown to the public charter school;
 - h. Communicate only with such users and/or sites as may be authorized by the public charter school;
 - i. Be forgiving of the mistakes of others and share your knowledge. Practice good mentoring techniques;
 - j. Report violations of the public charter school's policy and administrative regulation or security problems to the supervising teacher, system coordinator or administrator, as appropriate.

Complaints

Complaints regarding use of the public charter school's Electronic Communications System may be made to the teacher, principal, employee's supervisor or system coordinator. The public charter school's established complaint procedure will be used for complaints concerning violations of the public charter school's Electronic Communications System policy and/or administrative regulation. See Board policy KL - Public Complaints and accompanying administrative regulation.

Telephone/Membership/Other Charges

1. The public charter school assumes no responsibility or liability for any membership or phone charges including, but not limited to, long distance charges, per minute (unit) surcharges and/or equipment or line costs incurred by any home usage of the public charter school's system.
2. Any disputes or problems regarding phone services for home users of the public charter school's system are strictly between the system user and their local phone company and/or long distance service provider.

Information Content/Third Party Supplied Information

1. System users and parents of student system users are advised that use of the public charter school's system may provide access to materials that may be considered objectionable and inconsistent with the public charter school's mission and goals. Parents should be aware of the existence of such materials and monitor their student's home usage of the public charter school's system accordingly.
2. Opinions, advice, services and all other information expressed by system users, information providers, service providers or other third-party individuals are those of the providers and not the public charter school.
3. System users may, with supervising teacher or system coordinator approval, order services or merchandise from other individuals and agencies that may be accessed through the public charter school's system. These individuals and agencies are not affiliated with the public charter school. All matters concerning merchandise and services ordered including, but not limited to, purchase terms, payment terms, warranties, guarantees and delivery are solely between the seller and the system user. The public charter school makes no warranties or representation whatsoever with regard to any goods or services provided by the seller. Public charter school staff and administration shall not be a party to any such transaction or be liable for any costs or damages arising out of, either directly or indirectly, the actions or inactions of sellers.
4. The public charter school does not warrant that the functions or services performed by or that the information or software contained on the system will meet the system user's requirements or that the system will be uninterrupted or error-free or that defects will be corrected. The public charter school's system is provided on an "as is, as available" basis. The public charter school does not make any warranties, whether express or implied including, without limitation, those of merchantability and fitness for a particular purpose with respect to any services provided by the system and any information or software contained therein.
