

Compulsory Attendance

Except when exempt by Oregon law, all students ages 6 and 18 who have not completed the 12th grade are required to regularly attend a public, full-time school during the entire school term.

All students five or six years of age who have been enrolled in a public school are required to attend regularly.

Persons having legal control of a student the ages 6 and 18, who has not completed the 12th grade, are required to have the student attend and maintain the child in regular attendance during the entire school term. Persons having legal control of a student, who is five or six years of age and has enrolled the child in a public school, are required to have the student attend and maintain regular attendance.

Attendance supervisors shall monitor and report any violation of the compulsory attendance law to the administrator or designee. Failure to send a student and to maintain a student in regular attendance is a Class C violation.

The public charter school will develop procedures for issuing a citation.

A parent who is not supervising his/her student by requiring school attendance may also be in violation of Oregon Revised Statute (ORS) 163.577(1)(c). Failing to supervise a child is a Class A violation.

Exemptions from Compulsory School Attendance

In the following cases, students shall not be required to attend public, full-time schools:

1. Students being taught in a private or parochial school in courses of study usually taught in grades Kindergarten-12 in the public schools and in attendance for a period equivalent to that required of students attending public schools;
2. Students proving to the Board's satisfaction that they have acquired the courses of study taught in grades Kindergarten-12 in the public schools;
3. Students who have received a high school diploma or a modified diploma;
4. Students being taught, by a private teacher, the courses of study usually taught in grades Kindergarten-12 in the public school for a period equivalent to that required of students attending public schools;
5. Students being educated in the home by a parent or guardian;

6. Children whose sixth birthday occurred on or before September 1 immediately preceding the beginning of the current school year, if the parent or guardian notified the child's resident district in writing that the parent or guardian is delaying the enrollment of their child for one school year to better meet the child's needs for cognitive, social or physical development, as determined by the parent or guardian;
7. Children who are present in the United States on a nonimmigrant visa and who are attending a private, accredited English language learner program in preparation for attending a private high school or college;
8. Students excluded from attendance as provided by law;
9. An exemption may be granted to the parent or guardian of any student 16 or 17 years of age who is lawfully employed full-time, lawfully employed part-time and enrolled in school, a community college or alternative education program as defined in ORS 336.615;
10. An exemption may be granted to any child who is an emancipated minor or who has initiated the procedure for emancipation under ORS 419B.550 to 419B.558.
