

Myrtle Point School District 41

Code: DBG
Adopted: 5/10/04
Orig. Code(s): DBG

Budget Hearing

A summary of the proposed annual operating budget as approved by the budget committee will be published prior to the public budget hearing in accordance with Oregon Revised Statutes.

A written statement of the proposed annual operating budget for the ensuing budget period shall be available, on request, to voters during the business hours of the district office preceding the annual district meetings. The availability of this budget information shall be included in the legal notice of the budget hearing.

On the legally advertised date for the budget hearing, the Board will open the hearing for a period of one-half hour at which time Board members will explain the proposed budget and invite questions and discussion relative to the items of the budget. No action on any part of the budget shall be taken at this hearing.
