Public Solicitation in District Facilities

Fund raising by organizations not sanctioned by the district or for nonschool activities during school hours will not be permitted without prior approval of the superintendent and/or principal.

Demonstrations of services or materials and canvassing of students or any school employee for the purpose of selling products or services shall not be permitted in either the district's schools or school grounds, unless authorized by the superintendent and/or principal.

Only district sanctioned organizations may solicit funds or sell tickets on district property without first securing permission through the superintendent and/or principal.

Whenever possible, solicitation should occur during non-classroom time.
