Classified Staff Assignments and Transfers

All classified personnel are hired for and assigned to the district, not a specific locality. Assignments shall be made under the direction of the superintendent.

Transfers, both voluntary and involuntary, are made by the superintendent, in accordance with applicable provisions of the employee's collective bargaining agreement and subject to the approval of the Board. The superintendent will ensure that procedures are established for notification, interviewing and conferencing as appropriate to the nature of the transfer and to ensure consistency with the district nondiscrimination policies and practices.

The superintendent's decision shall be final.
