Approval of Handbooks

All school handbooks shall conform to the Student Rights and Responsibilities Handbook.

In order that pertinent Board policies and procedures may be known by all staff members, patrons, students and parents affected, district administrators and principals are granted authority to issue staff and student handbooks.

It is essential that the contents of all handbooks conform with district-wide policies and procedures. It is also important that all handbooks bearing the name of the district or one of its schools be of a quality that reflects favorably on the district. The Board, therefore, expects all handbooks to be approved by the superintendent or designee before publication.

The superintendent shall assure that the Student Rights and Responsibilities Handbook receives Board approval in order that the contents may be accorded the legal status of Board-approved policy.

The superintendent shall determine whether other specific handbooks need Board approval.
