Special Interest Materials

In general, supplementary printed materials from commercial, political, religious or other nonschool sources should have the approval of the principal before being used in the schools. This approval may be given to materials that are of obvious educational quality, which supplement and enrich text and reference book materials for definite school courses and which are timely.

Advertising materials of commercial, political or religious nature should not be displayed or distributed in the schools or on the school grounds. Students may not be used as the agents for distributing nonschool materials to homes without the approval of the superintendent.

Teachers may use special commercial aids such as models, films, slides, pictures, charts and exhibits for educational purposes with the approval of the principal although these materials may bear the name of a commercial business firm that provided the aid.

Educational films secured from or through commercial sources must be approved by the principal prior to their use in the schools.

All copyright laws regulating the use of such material will be strictly followed.
