Vending Machines and School Stores

The superintendent may authorize the use of vending machines or the establishment of school stores for food sales when appropriate.

Food items will be commercially prepared and prepackaged. Funds received from the sale of food items will be used for student activities or other uses authorized by the Board.

The program benefiting from the sales will be responsible for the regulation and supervision of the vending machine or school store.

These machines will not be in areas that will be in competition with the school lunch program.
