Title I - Parent Policy

PARENT POLICY: It is the policy of the North Santiam School District that the parents of children served using Federal Funds granted under Title I of Improving America's Schools Act (IASA) shall be kept informed of the academic progress being made by their children. The information provided shall be regularly communicated to the parents. Each school receiving funds is expected to create and implement a compact between the parents, the students and the staff. This compact shall, at a minimum, include parents and staff in the annual review process.
