Athletic Ejection Policy

Any student athlete or coach that is ejected from an Oregon School Activities Association (OSAA) sanctioned activity for unsportsmanlike conduct and said ejection results in a fine to the district, the student athlete or coach will become personally responsible for the payment of the fine as follows:

1. Each student athlete or coach will be responsible for paying all fines levied by the OSAA for ejections resulting from acts of unsportsmanlike and flagrant misconduct.
2. All fines must be paid to the district before the student athlete or coach will be allowed to participate in their next eligible contest as per OSAA rules.
3. Student athletes or coaches wishing to appeal fines may do so through the superintendent. The superintendent has the authority to have the district pay fines if he or she determines there were extenuating circumstances.
