

Ontario School District 8

Code: IGD
Adopted: 06/15/95
Readopted: 8/18/10
Orig. Code(s): IGD

Cocurricular/Extracurricular Activities

The district may provide student activity programs appropriate to the age and maturity of students involved. Programs shall be designed to offer as many students as possible worthwhile athletic and leisure time interests; recreational and social activity; cultural and artistic endeavors; and an opportunity to develop skills in student government and cooperative management of such activities.

Extracurricular programs shall be available on a voluntary basis. The district may develop criteria for participation in individual programs based on scholastic standing and other relative factors.

Every effort will be made to prevent extracurricular activities from unduly interfering with the regular scheduled school day.

Principals, with the approval of the superintendent, shall authorize and administer programs within their buildings. Rules for participation shall be readily available to all students and their parents.
