Public Information Program

The Board believes that an effective communications program is a necessary component of a district's organization and operation. Therefore, the Board supports the superintendent and principals in the organization, maintenance, and operation of an effective communications program.

The district's communications program should:

1. Encourage a better understanding of the goals, needs, and accomplishments of the total educational program;
2. Be a planned, systematic, two-way process between the Board and superintendent and the district's employees and the community;
3. Include the use of a variety of media such as meetings, letters, circulars, seminars, publications, electronic media, and personal contacts;
4. Provide the communication channels necessary for resolving grievances and eliminating misunderstandings.

Each school's communications program should:

1. Encourage informal as well as formal methods of communication;
2. Include the use of a variety of media such as meetings, publications, and personal contacts;
3. Supplement and support the general communications program of the district.
