

Program Exemptions

The Board may excuse students from a state-required program or learning activity for reasons of religion, disability or other reasons deemed appropriate by the district.

The Board may establish a course of education concerning sexually transmitted diseases including recognition of causes, sources and symptoms, and the availability of diagnostic and treatment centers. The parents or guardians of minor students shall be notified in advance that the course is to be taught. Any parent or guardian may direct in writing that the minor child be excused from any class within the course. Any parent may inspect the instructional materials to be used before or during the time the course is taught.

An alternative program for credit may be provided.
