District-Sanctioned Student Activities

District-sanctioned student activities and athletics are those approved by the district but not funded by the district. All such activities and athletics which are recognized by Oregon School Activities Association (OSAA) must follow OSAA rules and regulations, and all students engaged in those activities and athletics are governed by those rules and regulations, as well as by the district policies, regulations, and code of conduct.

Students participating in activities and athletics not recognized by OSAA are governed by the district policies, regulations, code of conduct and individual building criteria.

Eligibility for district-sanctioned activities is the same as district-sponsored activities and outlined administrative regulations.
