Supervision of Students**

The schools assume authority over the conduct of students and exercise care for their safety when they are attending school, in school transportation, and on school supervised field trips or excursions. The responsibility for the student conduct and safety while going to or from school in transportation other than the district's rests with the parents. The schools will cooperate with parents, property owners and police in dealing with problems or hazards created by students while going to and from school. Such cooperation may include the identification of students, counseling, disciplinary assistance and the notification of police and parents.
