Evaluation of Licensed Staff

The major purpose of evaluation is to aid the teacher in making continuing professional growth and to determine the teacher's performance of the teaching responsibilities. Evaluation is used for the improvement of instruction through identifying the strengths and weaknesses of the teacher and recommending specific suggestions for the improvement of performance. Evaluation is also used for recording data concerning recommendation for renewal, nonrenewal, contract extension, contract nonextension or dismissal. The evaluation procedures used shall fall within the bounds of ORS 342.850.
