Voting by Telephonic or Electronic Means

The Board believes that an important aspect of its decision-making is face-to-face communication among Board Members and Administrators at regularly scheduled meetings. Therefore, absentee participation and voting by electronic or telephonic means shall be allowed only under the following conditions:

1. When no quorum is present;
2. The business to be conducted cannot reasonably be postponed;
3. Electronic participation has been previously approved by the Board for that particular meeting or all Board Members present agree to electronic participation;
4. All absent Board Members have been offered equal opportunity to participate;
5. Full communication is provided for among all participating Board Members and the Superintendent.
